I have access to records regarding companies or individuals who have authority or licence to produce articles incorporating trade marks owned by Focus International Limited and F-50 LLC / Curtis Jackson "G-Unit". I have consulted these records and can state that [redacted] does not and never has had the authority or licence of Focus International Limited or F-50 LLC / Curtis Jackson to use the trade mark name or logo "G-Unit" on any products, neither do they have permission of Focus International Limited or F-50 LLC / Curtis Jackson to use, possess or supply such goods or materials used, or intended to be used in connection with the labelling, packaging or advertising of goods with that name or logo.

Examination of these items revealed that the packaging, materials used and labelling were inconsistent with those of products produced by or on behalf of Focus International Limited or F-50 LLC / Curtis Jackson "G-Unit". I can state that the item examined is not genuine. It has not been manufactured by or on behalf of "G-Unit" and use of the trademarks of which "G-Unit" is the proprietor is not permitted or authorised on goods that are not genuine.

A genuine G-Unit T shirt would retail at approximately £39.99.

SIGNED Ronald HARRISON

G-Unit does not authorise or permit anyone to sell or otherwise distribute goods that are not genuine bearing a mark resembling or likely to be mistaken for the registered trademark for which G-Unit is the proprietor. This trademark has a reputation in the United Kingdom and its unauthorised use, takes or would take unfair advantage of, or is detrimental to the distinctive character or repute of the mark.

These products can cause customers to be misled and harms not only the Company's reputation but also that of the genuine retailers. In this case G-Unit trade mark has been damaged which could lead to the loss of revenue and jobs etc.

These samples were returned to London Borough of Richmond Upon Thames Trading Standards Service.
